Great Sale of Handkerchief "Seconds"

AT ONE-HALF USUAL PRICES. 3,000 dozen, technically called "seconds," practically equal in value and fineness to our own first-class regular stock.

About one in every twenty shows a visible dropped or thickened threaddefects enough in the eyes of scrupulous manufacturers to cause their rejection from perfect assortments. Direct from Belfast-made by Ireland's greatest manufacturers, representing an entire season's aggregate.

These trifling, isolated imperfections condemned 36,000 fine, fresh Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs to the class of "seconds," and now place them upon our special sale counters at the following absurdly low prices:

Women's Plain All Linen Hemstitched,

15c 19c 6c 9c Men's Plain All Linen Hemstitched. 12½c 15c and 10c

Precisely Half of Existing Prices on Our Regular Goods.

A SALE OF BLACK VELVET RIBBONS AT SHARP CONCESSIONS FROM REGULAR PRICES.

We secured them under exceptional circumstances: Instead of ten-yard pieces the lengths run irregularly, making them less desirable for wholesale purposes. Had their lengths been uniform, the Importer would not have given our offer a moment's consideration. As It was he closed to us 4,500 pieces at extremely low figures, in point of fact, the prices that rule common grade Ribbons. These are Satin Back Velvet Ribbons, absolutely without cotton admixture, front or back. The retail value is absolutely unaffected, indeed, since some of the numbers are wider than the usual run, an extra incentive is offered for purchase. With all emphasis, we proclaim their superb dye and sterling quality. Seldom do such goods appear on special sale counters.
